

ATLAS.ti Accessibility Statement

We hereby assure your our full commitment to accessibility, as expressed in the document we sent you recently. We are committed to providing an equitable experience for all users regardless of their disability status. Equally, we are committed to following all pertinent accessibility guidelines, including WCAG 2.0 A and AA and aspire to continuously improve the accessibility of our products. We perform extensive in-house accessibility testing and are currently conducting a major and thorough revision of our main products, in direct collaboration with end-users who special accessibility requirements. Our next major release will, in fact, be guided predominantly by improvements in accessibility. - For any concrete concerns or questions re this or any other issue, you can also reach us at general@support.atlasti.com